

PERFECT YOUR SENSE OF SMELL

Introduction to the laboratory & quality control

An approach to laboratory work and quality control.

OBJECTIVES

- Introduction to the basics of the perfumery laboratory.
- Understand the impact of maturation and maceration.
- Learn to detect quality issues in a raw material or a perfume.

CONTENT

Laboratory introduction:

- Notions of health and safety rules.
- Handling pure raw materials.
- Weighing an alcoholic solution.
- Understanding how to write a formula.
- Weighing a formula in an alcoholic solution and in pure.

Quality control:

- Notions of different uses, of reactivity, and the stability and conservation of raw materials and perfumes.
- Study of the maturation and maceration of certain fragrance families.
- Contamination test.
- The alteration of raw materials and perfumes.

Perfume enthusiasts who want to take the formulation course. Professionals and newcomers to perfume techniques.

1 Teaching file

1 day (7 hours)